THE LAWYER SELECTS AUGUST DEBOUZY “LAW FIRM OF THE YEAR: FRANCE”

| 22/03/19 |

August Debouzy won the French law firm of the year 2019 award (Law Firm of the Year: France), at the prestigious awards ceremony organized by The Lawyer magazine in London on March 19, 2019.

August Debouzy is regularly recognized in French and international legal rankings for the quality of its different practice areas. This award marks a further step in the market's recognition of the firm's capabilities.

"We are very happy and proud of this award. For nearly 25 years, we have been committed to satisfying our clients' needs with creativity, pragmatism and determination, in France and internationally. This award is a result of the teamwork between our lawyers and our clients, whom we thank for their renewed trust in the firm," comments Mahasti Razavi, Managing Partner.

The judges included in-house counsel of different European and international corporations, as well as partners in other law firms. In selecting firms for each category, the judges focused on several criteria, including international strategic vision, the ability to work on cross-border projects, the size and complexity of the projects handled, as well as diversity initiatives.
