REAL ESTATE - CONSTRUCTION

August Debouzy has advised French real estate group ATLAND on the signing of an agreement to acquire 100% of the share capital of STAM Europe from Corestate Capital Holding.

According to ATLAND, this strategic transaction enables the group to pursue its development and strengthen its position in third-party asset management, particularly for institutional investors. It is fully aligned with the group's growth strategy, aiming to broaden its expertise in high-potential sectors such as logistics and long-term residential real estate.

With €4.6 billion in assets under management as of December 31, 2024, ATLAND is a listed company on Euronext Paris, active across the entire real estate value chain – investment, development, and asset management for both institutional and individual clients.

Completion of the transaction remains subject to certain conditions precedent, including regulatory approvals from the French Financial Markets Authority (AMF).

The August Debouzy team was led by partner Étienne Mathey, with Jean-Damien Boulanger (counsel), Coralie Foucault (senior associate), and Elina Alfamini (associate) on corporate/M&A matters. Pierre Descheemaeker (senior counsel) handled regulatory aspects. Antonia Raccat (partner) and Catherine Mintégui (counsel) worked on real estate matters.

Elie Bétard (counsel) and Vincent Fromholz (associate) on tax. Diane Reboursier (counsel) and Boris Leone-Robin (counsel) on employment law. Charles Hugo (senior associate) on litigation. Pierre Perrot (counsel) and Inès Bouzayen (senior associate) on intellectual property and Jennifer Hinge (partner) and Pauline Desplas (senior associate) on financing.
