Dassault Aviation announces the repurchase of 5.5% of its capital from the Airbus group.

The Airbus group finalized its divestiture from Dassault Aviation's capital by undertaking, the 10th of June, a private placement with institutional investors and a convertible bond into Dassault Aviation shares program.

As part of its repurchase program, Dassault Aviation has acquired, simultaneously with its investment, 502 282 shares representing 5.5% of its own shares.

Gilles August, partner and founder of the law firm August and Debouzy, accompanied by Ferenc Gonter, partner, assisted Dassault Aviation.
