Catherine Le Manchec, 40, who joined August & Debouzy in 2002 as an associate and was appointed as counsel in 2006, represents and advises major French and international corporate groups in managing sensitive HR strategies, namely redundancies due to site closures by reason of restructurings or due to the loss of public contracts or the search for flexibility-related HR solutions. She has specific experience in connection with the HR and collective bargaining issues arising in restructurings.

Catherine Le Manchec holds a DEA post-graduate diploma in labor and employment law (University of Paris-I, 1995) as well as a Master's degree in labor and employment law (University of Paris-I, 1994). "I joined the firm because I was enthusiastic about the team's combativeness and reactivity. It is with that state of mind and by relying on the Firm's multidisciplinary and innovative structure that I advise companies on their development strategy."
