BIOGRAPHY COUNSEL

Emilie Lecomte was admitted to the Paris Bar in 2009 and has been working for August Debouzy's Tax team since January 2013. Previously, she worked as an associate for three years for a French Business Law Firm with offices worldwide.

Emilie advises French and foreign companies, as well as corporate groups, on the day-to-day management of their domestic and international tax matters: tax audits, reorganizations, implementation and monitoring of tax consolidation, intra-group flows management, implementation of stock-option plans, free share plans or BSPCE, and permanent establishment issues. She has a significant experience in the management of tax audits and tax disputes and regularly assists her clients with litigation/tax matters.

Emilie Lecomte regularly advises French and foreign individuals on real estate and wealth management worldwide, the transfer of tax residency to France or abroad or the planning of the transfer of their assets. She also has a strong experience in foundations and endowment funds.

Emilie was appointed as the French National Reporter of the International Bar Association (IBA) for 2018 and 2019 and as the European Regional Forum Liaison Officer of the Academic and Professional Development Committee of the IBA for 2021 and 2022. She is a regular speaker at international tax conferences and was listed in the 2023 Best Lawyers ranking in Tax.
