BIOGRAPHY

PARTNER

Olivier Attias has been a partner at August Debouzy since 2018. His practice focuses primarily on litigation, with a strong emphasis on compliance and business criminal law.

He is a recognized expert in anti-corruption compliance, international economic sanctions, and export control regulations. He advises and represents multinational corporations, financial institutions, and senior executives in high-stakes compliance matters, internal investigations, and regulatory proceedings, both in France and internationally.

He holds degrees from ESSEC, Université Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne, and New York University (LL.M.). Admitted to the Paris and New York Bars, he previously spent ten years with the International Litigation and Arbitration team in the Paris office of Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP.
