BIOGRAPHY

ASSOCIATE

Within the team dedicated to litigation, arbitration and criminal law of business affairs, Philippe Alliaume takes part in the various applications of commercial litigation.

Having joined the practice in 2020, he registered to the Paris Bar that same year.

Philippe Alliaume has previously worked as CIO in bank and insurance, and CEO of consultancy, real estate and media companies.

He has also been member of an elected employment tribunal and has acted for ten years as consular judge, presiding over a litigation chamber and on bankruptcies, as well as assuming temporary administration positions on behalf of the l'Autorité de Contrôle Prudentiel et de Résolution.

His double cursus and professional experience have enabled him to develop strong skills in addressing challenges covering multiple fields.
