BIOGRAPHY

EUROPEAN PATENT ATTORNEY

Within our Technology Media Intellectual Property team, Antoine Lerond advises French and foreign clients on their industrial property strategy, with a particular focus on patents.

He notably represents his clients during proceedings before the European patent office. He is involved in areas as diverse as mechanics, telecommunications, or medical devices.

Qualified as European patent attorney since 2021, Antoine joined our firm in 2022 after working six years in an IP law firm.

Graduated from an Engineering school – Télécom Paris - and the University Panthéon-Assas (CAVEJ), he has strong skills in science and industrial property law.
