BIOGRAPHY

COUNSEL

Catherine Mintégui advises a clientele mainly composed of international funds and asset managers in the context of their real estate investments.

Catherine has significant experience in all areas of real estate, and in particular the implementation of joint ventures / investment protocols, share deals (acquisitions and disposals of real estate companies and portfolios) and real estate financing.

Catherine frequently advises asset managers and end-users in the day-to-day management of their assets as well as the restructuring of rental schemes on all types of assets, including in future state of completion.

Before joining August Debouzy in 2023, Catherine worked for several years in major U.S. & U.K business law firms.
