BIOGRAPHY

SENIOR ASSOCIATE

Benjamin Sabbagh Zadeh joined August Debouzy in 2023 in the Litigation, Arbitration and White-Collar Crime team. His practice is centered around international commercial arbitration and complex commercial litigation.

He advises and represents clients from a wide array of sectors, including the defense and military, construction, telecommunications, IT and technologies, aerospace, oil and gas, energy and banking. He is regularly involved in post-M&A disputes, shareholder disputes, pre litigation advice (including mediation), enforcement matters and para-arbitral proceedings (such as annulment or enforcement proceedings).

Benjamin has a solid international arbitration experience in ICC, Swiss chambers, (Swiss Arbitration Chamber, CAS), OHADA, CEPANI and PCA cases as well as in para-arbitral proceedings such as annulment proceedings or exequatur proceedings arising out of international arbitration cases.

He started his career in 2019 in a US law firm before joining August Debouzy.
