BIOGRAPHY

As a member of our Technologies Intellectual Property Media team, Matthieu assists French and international clients in devising their industrial property strategy, particularly with regard to patents.

He provides advice to his clients in various areas, such as mechanics, physics, IT and medical devices.

Matthieu joined August Debouzy in 2023, after several internships in industry, in particular in intellectual property departments.

He graduated from an Engineering School (Ecole d'Ingénieurs des Sciences Aérospatiales - ELISA Aerospace) and from the University of Panthéon-Assas (Paris II) in Law. As such, he has both technical and legal skills.
