BIOGRAPHY ASSOCIATE

Admitted to the Paris Bar in 2024, Mayeul Ottaviani joined August Debouzy the same year.

Specializing primarily in patent law, he provides both advisory and litigation support to French and international clients, defending their interests before national courts and offices and the Unified Patent Court (UPC). He also maintains a strong interest in FRAND matters and broader intellectual property issues.

Mayeul graduated from the University of Montpellier and gained significant experience working with other leading international law firms.
