BIOGRAPHY ASSOCIATE

Clélie Siméoni advises clients on all aspects of French and EU competition law, with particular expertise in merger control, cartels, and abuse of dominance. She also has significant experience in competition litigation, including follow-on claims for damages arising from findings of anticompetitive practices.

Prior to joining August Debouzy in 2026, she spent three years in Brussels as a member of the Competition team at A&O Shearman, where she advised on complex EU competition law matters.
